ORDER

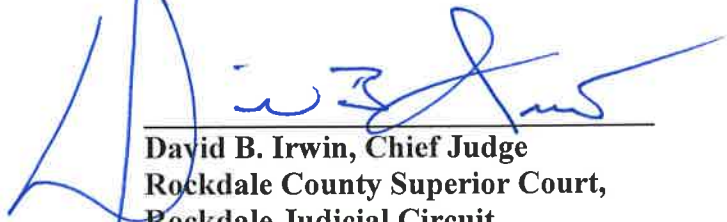

O.C.G.A. § 42-8-34.1 (f) provides that payment of restitution or reparation, costs, or fines ordered by the Court “shall, in the discretion of the sentencing judge, be made either to the clerk of the sentencing court or, if the sentencing court is a probate court, state court, or superior court, to the DCS office¹ serving said court.” Additionally, O.C.G.A. § 17-14-14 (a) provides that “payments pursuant to an order for restitution shall be made to the clerk of the court or to any other person, for the benefit of the victim or victims, as the ordering authority shall order.” Effective January 1, 2018,

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that payment of all fines, surcharges, restitution, court costs, work release costs and other monies as ordered by the Superior Court, with the exception of public defender fees, shall be paid by the Defendant(s) to the DCS office serving the Rockdale County Superior Court instead of to the Clerk of the Rockdale County Superior Court. The DCS office is ordered to properly disburse such funds pursuant to law and to notify Georgia Department of Corrections of such receipt and disbursement on a monthly basis.

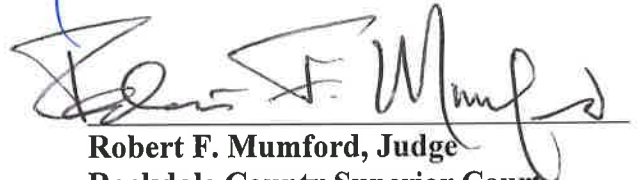

¹ “DCS” means the Department of Community Supervision. See O.C.G.A. § 42-8-21(1).

This order is an internal operating procedure enacted pursuant to Uniform Superior Court Rule 1.2 (C). Pursuant to Uniform Superior Court Rule 1.2 (E), the Clerk of the Superior Court shall make copies of this Order available to attorneys and the general public and shall post a copy of this Order in a prominent place in the criminal division of her office.

SO ORDERED this 11th day of December, 2017, at Conyers, Georgia.

David B. Irwin, Chief Judge
Rockdale County Superior Court,
Rockdale Judicial Circuit

Robert F. Mumford, Judge
Rockdale County Superior Court
Rockdale Judicial Circuit
